
Cronulla RSL Memorial Club Limited

By-Laws (June 2016)

1. Disciplinary Matters

In accordance with Clauses 20, 21, 22 and 23 of the Club's Constitution the CEO and or Management, under the CEO's delegation, has the power to remove a member or a guest from the premises if such person is acting in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Club or considered to be guilty of conduct which is unbecoming of a member.

Further, the CEO and the Board has the power to reprimand, suspend, fine, expel or accept the resignation of any member found to be acting in a manner outlined above.

While not a complete list of examples, such conduct would include intoxication; violent acts; refusal to comply with a lawful direction of the CEO (or delegate); assists under age guests to access alcoholic liquor; use or supply of any illegal substance; etc.

2. Guests and Temporary Members

In accordance of Section 14 and 25 of the Club's Constitution the CEO and or Management, under the CEO's delegation, may decide that a Visitor/Guest is availing him/herself of the Club's facilities too frequently and invite them to become a member. If they refuse or membership is declined, that person may be refused further entry.

3. Parking

The Club has made provision for off street parking for the use of Members and guests while using Club facilities. The under-club parking and ramp is not for use by unauthorised staff or contractors apart from tradesmen working on the Club premises and for deliveries.

4. Dress Rules

The Club requires all members and Visitors to be neat and tidy at all times while on Club premises. Acceptable standard of dress will be displayed, by notice, prominently within the Club.
